General Competition Information

- Participation in the competition constitutes acceptance of the competition rules and the entrants agree to abide by the rules.
- NamChefs reserves the right to use the images taken of the competitors, winners of all categories and staff for publicity purposes in any manner they deem fit, without any further remuneration being made payable to the winners.
- NamChefs will not be held responsible for any delays or complication in prizes awarded.
- NamChefs and the organizing committee will not, under any circumstances, accept responsibility for damage or loss of an exhibit, dishes or personal effects, but all reasonable precautions will be taken to avoid such damage or loss.

Each participant will get a certificate according to WorldChefs standards.

- Chefs achieving 90 to 100 points will receive a Gold certificate
- Chefs achieving 80-89 points a Silver certificate
- Chefs achieving 70 to 79 points a Bronze certificate
- Chefs achieving less than 70 points will receive a certificate of participation.

Criteria for All Categories of Chefs

All participants will have 3 hours to complete the preparation and presentation of a 3 course meal for 4 guests. The cooking time will start after 30 minutes allowed for a briefing and kitchen set-up. After the food is served you will have 30 minutes to clean your station.

- The preparation and presentation of the 3-course menu, 4 individual servings, must be completed in the time of 3 hours. This will be preceded by an additional 30 minutes for briefing & kitchen set up and followed by an additional 30 minutes for kitchen and workplace clean up.
- Points will be deducted for exceeding the time limit.
- Competitors must present the menu in the order with the courses being prepared, namely, starter, main course and dessert.
- Menu, recipes and pre order list as per attached document and for all preparation must be presented to the organizer before the start of the competition. Note: Only order what you will use. Excessive leftovers and waste from ordered ingredients will be penalized.
- All compulsory ingredient to be used in every dish to prevent a zero score for that dish. Creativity and innovation are most important due to the amount of time.
- The objective is to showcase Namibian food, keeping up with modern culinary trends.

COMPETITORS GENERAL GUIDELINES:

- Food must be practical for restaurant service, i.e. carrying by waitrons.
- Practical portion size is important, i.e. enough to eat but generally less than the normal restaurant serving.
- Emphasis should be placed on appearance, colour, texture and flavour combinations presenting a natural look.
- The demonstration of a wide variety of skills will count in your favour.
- Pay attention to clean and correct carving of meat.
- Meat slices should be served with the carved surface upwards and not left as when carved.
- Remember to rest your meat before slicing and plating.
- If fruit is used to garnish meat, it should be cut into small pieces or sliced thinly.
- Avoid bones and shells on the plate, which would make the dish difficult for the customer to eat.
- Vegetables must be cut or turned uniformly.
- Ingredients and garnishes should complement each other and must be edible. Avoid all ready-made garnishes.
- Piping should be 100% accurate and neat.
- Dressing the rims of plates is not acceptable.
- The use of stabilizers is permitted when using whipped cream, crèmes, etc.

COMPETITORS SHOULD AVOID:

- Repetition in preparatory methods.
- Every individual exhibit shall be the bona fide work of the competitor.
- Use of inedible materials.
- Excessively thick glazing.
- Decorating with parsley, watercress.
- Cluttering the plates.
- Use of food colouring.
- Use of tarnished silver.

COMPETITORS SHOULD CONCENTRATE ON:

Preparing simple dishes with techniques you feel comfortable with and remember to taste your food!
